ANZ appoints Hong Swee Lau as CEO Taiwan

ANZ today announced the appointment of Hong Swee Lau as CEO Taiwan, reporting to Xiaoguang Huang, Head of Greater China.

Mr Lau is currently the Chief Risk Officer for Asia and Singapore. Since joining ANZ in 10 years ago, he has held a number of senior risk roles in Greater China and the South East Asia, India & Middle East region. Prior to joining ANZ, he worked at HSBC for 18 years.

Xiaoguang Huang, Head of Greater China said, "Taiwan is key to ANZ strategy of helping our customers in Greater China connect with opportunities in Australia, New Zealand and other markets across the region."

"Mr Lau has significant experience in risk management, board directorship and governance across the region. Coupled with his strong relationships with customers in Taiwan and throughout our international network, we are confident that Mr Lau will be a strong addition to the team," Mr Huang added.

Subject to regulatory approval, Mr Lau will commence his new role in May 2020, based in Taipei.
