ANZ appoints Sonny Lin as Head of Markets Taiwan

ANZ today announced the appointment of Sonny Lin as Head of Markets Taiwan, reporting to both Dominique Blanchard, Head of Markets, North Asia and Peter Chan, CEO Taiwan. Mr Lin commenced the role today and is based in Taipei.

In this role, Mr Lin will be responsible for leading ANZ's Markets business in Taiwan including sales, trading and balance sheet.

Mr Lin joined ANZ from Standard Chartered (Taiwan) where he held various management positions, including Head of Financial Markets Sales. He led the team to distribute FICC products across Greater China. Under his leadership, his team had achieved substantial growth since 2011. Prior to Standard Chartered, Mr Lin held various roles at Merrill Lynch HK and Citigroup Global Markets.

Peter Chan said: "We are pleased Sonny has joined ANZ to lead our markets coverage in Taiwan. His deep local knowledge in different customer and product segments will be a great support for our business, which is focused on customers with trade and capital flows in Asia."

"His appointment reinforces our commitment to our institutional customers and to this important market, and will help the bank build on the success we have already seen in Taiwan." said Mr Chan.
